Indications are that nothing will be done this year about building the stretches of state highway between Danielson and the Rhoda Island line at Little Rest and between Brooklyn and Hampton. The years of delay in constructing what would be a great and convenient arrectly of travel through this section of eastern Connecticut furnishes another irritation to add to the many that make people dissatisfied with things as they are today.

John Hamilton has entered the employ of the Williamwille Buff Wheel company, as a member of the office force.

The high cost of living in no way acts as a disterent to those who would enter into the realms of matrimony, as is indicated by the daily increasing list of June veddings in towns in this section.

Eting George will be in Danielson attending to an important engagement that he has on hand.
